Mid-Autumn Festival

moon = 中秋节

天上有月亮圆, 地上的家人全.

In the sky, the moon is round; on earth, the family is reunited.

back
On the 15th day of the 8th lunar month, the moon is full and appears larger than during any other month.

Families in China like to get together and look at the moon.

While they look at the moon, they enjoy eating moon cakes.
Print both pages of the circle book and affix them together, matching the faint dotted line. Cut on dotted line from edge to exact center of circle.

Draw your own pictures of the full moon, a family together, and moon cakes in the empty parts.

Fold in fourths so that title page “Mid-Autumn Festival” in on top.
